Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On October 26, 2018, ReWalk Robotics Ltd. (the “Company”) received a notification letter (the “Bid Price Letter”) from The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) indicating that the Company did not satisfy the requirement for continued listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market under Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a) (“Rule 5550(a)”) to maintain a minimum bid price of $1 per share. On the same day, the Company received a separate notification letter (the “MVLS Letter”) from Nasdaq stating that, under Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(b) (“Rule 5550(b)”), the Company failed to comply with the minimum $35 million market value of listed securities (“MVLS”) requirement for continued listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market as of October 26, 2018 and did not meet the rule’s alternative $2.5 million shareholders’ equity and $500,000 net income standards as of applicable balance sheet and income statement dates. The Company became deficient as of October 26, 2018 with Rule 5550(a) as its closing bid price was less than $1 per share for 30 consecutive business days, and with Rule 5550(b) because, in addition to not meeting the alternative shareholders’ equity and net income requirements, its MVLS was below $35 million for 30 consecutive business days. The MVLS Letter addresses the same continued listing deficiency raised by NASDAQ in letters from November 2017 and May 2018, which the Company cured temporarily in June 2018 when its MVLS exceeded $35 million for the required period after the closing of a private placement. As in the past, the Bid Price Letter and the MVLS Letter are notices of deficiency, not delisting, and do not currently affect the listing or trading of ReWalk ordinary shares on The Nasdaq Capital Market.

The Company has 180 days, or until April 24, 2019, to comply with (i) Rule 5550(a) by maintaining a closing bid price of at least $1 per share for 10 consecutive business days, and (ii) Rule 5550(b) by (1) maintaining a MVLS (the product of total shares outstanding and the daily closing bid price) of $35 million or (2) having shareholders’ equity of at least $2.5 million. Additionally, the Company may be eligible for a second 180-day period to satisfy Rule 5550(a)’s minimum bid price requirement, if, as of April 24, 2019, the Company continues to have a market value of publicly held shares of at least $1 million and meets all other initial listing standards of The Nasdaq Capital Market (with the exception of the bid price requirement). The Company intends to monitor closely the closing bid price of its ordinary shares and its MVLS and to consider plans for regaining compliance with Rules 5550(a) and 5550(b), which may include implementing additional capital raises. While the Company plans to review all available options, there can be no assurance that it will be able to regain compliance with the applicable rules.

If the Company does not regain compliance with Rule 5550(b) by April 24, 2019, or if the Company regains compliance with Rule 5550(b) by April 24, 2019 but fails to regain compliance with Rule 5550(a) during that rule’s applicable cure period, Nasdaq will notify the Company that its ordinary shares are subject to delisting. The Company would then be permitted to appeal any delisting determination to a Nasdaq Hearings Panel. The Company’s ordinary shares would remain listed on The Nasdaq Capital Market pending the panel’s decision after the hearing. For more information regarding the consequences of a potential delisting, see “Part II, Item 1A. Risk Factors” in the Company’s quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2018, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on August 14, 2018.
